

THE BALLAD OF LEVI LOCUST

1. What is Levi Locust looking for as he flies all over the countryside?
2. How did the other bugs behave towards Levi in the first half of the story? Were they kind or unkind?
3. It's normal to be different from others, and sometimes, you may even find these differences annoying. However, is it ever okay to talk unkindly to someone like the bugs talked to Levi? Why or why not?
4. What would be a kinder way for the other bugs to treat Levi? Give an example of what they could say or do to show kindness.
5. Put yourself in Levi's shoes. How do you think he felt when the other bugs were mean to him?
6. After a long day of searching, Levi meets the Grasshopper. How does the Grasshopper treat Levi differently from the other bugs?
7. What does the Grasshopper love most about Levi?
8. Why is it important to always be yourself when looking for the perfect friend?
9. Do you think it's possible for everyone in the world to like you? Why or why not?
10. Why is it so important to cherish your true friends?
11. Think about your true friends who love you for who you are. Draw a picture of you and your friends enjoying your favourite activity together. Be sure to include details that show why your friends are special to you.
