

JANE ESCAPES TO THE JUNGLE OF INDIVIDUALITY

1. How can we tell that Jane is a very gifted little girl?
2. Jane's mood changed quickly from happy to sad. What caused this change?
3. What special advice did Jane's mom give her before school? In your own words, explain what she meant.
4. Jane's mom gave her a hug to help her feel better. What helps you feel better when you're sad?
5. Why do you think Eric behaved unkindly towards Jane?
6. Describe the Jungle of Individuality. What did Jane see and hear?
7. Which three animals came to greet Jane when she arrived?
8. Write down something unique about your favorite animal from the three that greeted Jane.
9. What does individuality mean?
10. After seeing the beautiful creatures in the Jungle of Individuality, did Jane still dislike being different?
11. What is the legend of the Waterfall of Strength?
12. Is it normal to have hard days, even if you are strong?
13. Why is it important to love what makes you unique?
14. Imagine you saw someone being bullied like Eric bullied Jane. What would you say to them?

Drawing Activity

Imagine you are in the Jungle of Individuality, celebrating what makes you unique alongside many beautiful animals. Draw this scene and include Jane's special phrase at the bottom: "My individuality makes me strong."

I love seeing your artwork.
If you would like us to feature your drawing and celebrate you, please do send a picture of it to changetheworld@karyn.uk
Don't forget to include your name and age!
