2. How did the Coven react to Bon having fun and being herself?
3. How do you think their reactions made Bon feel?
4. Why do you think the other witches were sparkling, but Bon wasn't?
5. What are some similarities you have with Bon, and what are some differences?
6. Bon met many amazing creatures on her journey to find her sparkle. Can you name some of them?
7. Can you give examples of the unique things that made these creatures sparkle?
8. The creatures were so kind and shared their sparkle with Bon, but why did this not quite feel right?
9. After looking everywhere for her sparkle, where did Bon find it?
10. When people can be themselves and feel loved, they start to sparkle. What are some ways you can help your friends and family to sparkle?
11. Bon is autistic, which means her brain works differently from many other people. Ask a parent or teacher what it means to have autism, and then write down some of the special qualities, unique strengths, and likes or dislikes of people with autism.
12. Drawing Activity: Imagine you are friends with Bon. Draw a picture of how you would help Bon sparkle!
